Weight Loss Program

In 3 treatments, your size will be changed!

Acupuncture Weight Loss is a type of therapy that aims to assist men and women with healthy weight reduction. From a TCM perspective, the Acupuncture points, foods, and herbs that are chosen to assist with weight loss directly influence the Qi of the spleen and liver systems to treat the root imbalances that are causing the weight gain.

Hair Loss Program

Chinese Medicine and Head Massage can help to grow hair yourself.

The 2004 issue of Shanghai Journal of Acupuncture and Moxibustion describes a study performed on 110 people with alopecia ( hair loss/baldness ) using 7 star needle therapy plus external application of astragalus, resulting in a total effective rate of 99.1% and cure rate of 83.6%. Herbal medicine can also accelerate hair growth.

Quit Smoking Program

Acupuncture can empower you to take control and being health and smoke-free life.

Acupuncture as an alternative approach to smoking cessation has a growing number of converts. In fact, acupuncture is often a court mandated treatment for drug addicts because of its ability to reduce cravings and alleviate withdrawal symptoms such as irritability, anxiety and difficulty concentrating.
